

Icy Newfoundland

Sunday, 03 June 2007

We departed

LaGuardia

Airport at 10:20 am for our next stop to

Newfoundland . After 20 minutes of weave our way through a few active cells on the west side of Boston , we made to the clear blue sky. We had a very smooth ride and arrived in icy

Goose

Bay at 4:30 pm.

There is not much to see in Goose

Bay , but it is a good fuel stop.
