

Great Barrier Reef

Sunday, 01 July 2007

I decided to take a day off from flying and literally go down under in Australia .

The Great Barrier Reef at the eastern shore of Australia is every SCUBA diver's dream. I reserved a seat on the 8:30 am boat to Kelso Reef to take my first dive at the Great Barrier Reef .

I meet Glenn from Sydney and Cedric from

Switzerland . We spend the day diving together.
